Top Tips

A group of four young children, two girls and two boys, are smiling and waving at the camera. They are wearing light blue school uniforms. They are standing on a paved walkway in front of a school building with a green roof and a playground with colorful equipment in the background. A stone plaque is visible behind them.

1. What do you want them to learn?
2. Where is the curriculum in your surroundings?
3. What connections can you make?
4. How can you exploit your surroundings?
